About Auction Transport Services Inc.

Though we began as a small car hauling business in 1997, Auction Transport Services Inc. has grown significantly to serve all of Atlantic Canada, Québec and Ontario. Located in Moncton, New Brunswick, we are centrally located in the hub of the Maritimes. This allows us convenient access to many of Eastern Canada's ports, auctions, and dealerships. Additionally, our full maintenance garage and secure compound, with 24-hour surveillance, locked gate and well-lit yard sits on five acres of land.

We provide quality, operational execution and a customer focused organization that is fast and flexible. We serve both individual customers and large corporate clients, and can handle vehicles of various sizes, both new and used. Our team of drivers consist of experienced short and long-haul drivers who operate with precision and adhere strictly to our high safety standards.
